INTRODUCTION

From the earliest days of our history, Americans have been taken into captivity as a result of armed conflict. As prisoners of war, Americans have endured a variety of conditions from adherence to the conventions of war to unspeakable cruelty and have been exposed to a variety of cultures worldwide.

This bibliography lists works that examine and document American POW experiences from the Revolutionary era to the present. It was compiled at the request of the Department of History in support of the Nineteenth Military History Symposium that will be held at the United States Air Force Academy from 14 to 16 November 2000. The bibliography is a selective list of the US Air Force Academy Academic Library's holdings on the indicated topics. Included are books, government documents, journal articles, and reports. Neither newspaper articles nor works of fiction are included.

Compiled by the History and Military Science Bibliographer and Reference Librarian, Mr. Elwood White, comments concerning this bibliography or the USAFA Special Bibliography Series may be addressed to:

To the participants in the 19th Military History Symposium, The American P.O.W. Experience, we welcome you to your United States Air Force Academy. We hope that during your stay you will be able to visit our library. You may be interested in viewing the current exhibit in the library—an extensive display of Vietnam POW memorabilia, which will be on display from mid-November to mid-December 2000. An earlier exhibit on Stalag Luft III is available on the Academy libraries' web page.

For the libraries that receive this issue of the USAFA Special Bibliography Series as part of our gifts and exchange program, we hope that you will find the citations useful for your research and study.
